Presentation Of Learning

High Tech High projects strive to create well-rounded, reflective individuals. We have developed a few habits that we believe every High Tech High student will possess when they graduate. Students are expected to discuss at least three of these characteristics. Feel free to use these habits to guide your questions.

Habits of Mind

Significance – What was the most significant moment in your learning or development over the course of the second semester?

Perspective – When was a time that your perspective was challenged or changed?

Evidence – What is an academic opinion that you have developed as a result of your work this semester?

Connection – When did you truly connect with a person, project, or learning experience?

Supposition – When would you have done something differently and what would the possible results have been?

Habits of Heart

Self-Advocacy – In what ways have you been prepared, professional, or held high expectations for yourself?

Intellectual Curiosity – In what ways have you explored new ideas or attempted to seek solution?

Unlimited Potential – In what ways have you been dedicated and motivated?

Integrity – In what ways have you recognized social responsibility and served with your mind and heart?

Cooperation – In what ways have you supported members of your community, upheld unity, or appreciated diversity?
